

Taste, Sip and Chop!

Cancer Survivors Day 2017

Friday, June 9th

Cancer Survivors Day is a time to celebrate life. It's a gathering of support for survivors, their families, and friends, to show that life after a cancer diagnosis can be fruitful, rewarding, and even inspiring. Join us at Cancer Support Community for a day of celebration.

The day's activities will include:

- 11:00 AM: Presentation by Chef Ryan Callahan, award-winning author of "Cooking for Chemo ...and After!" and a tasting demonstration of the five flavors (salty, savory, spicy, sour and sweet). Plus a "no-cook cooking" audience participation where you'll learn your palate by making and seasoning your own snacks. (RSVP Required)
- 1:30 PM: Community Fair and Open House
- 2:30 PM: Traditional British High Tea presented by Executive Chef Thom Stevenson (RSVP Required)
- 4:30 PM: Community Fair and Open House
- 5:30 PM: Chopped-style competition in the kitchen featuring well-known local chefs. (RSVP Required)

More details for each event to come via email. Please RSVP by calling 614-884-4673.
